Videoclips during the Year for Priests

2010.6.5

For the Year for Priests proclaimed by Pope Benedict XVI, this website featured a series of videoclips showing St Josemaria in encounters with priests from different countries.

In one of them, St Josemaria said, “I can tell you that I am overjoyed to see you, my heart swells with joy, and I love you very much, because I know that you love all priests especially. We can’t fail to love all priests, and love them with preferential love. And the proof of that love has to be our prayer, our totally priestly life – which includes our defects and mistakes. I have a lot, and you must have one or two.”

The following is a list of the videoclips available:
